Keep a closer eye on how much energy you're using

Confused by Smart Meters? your local Age UK can help you understand how they work and the options available for you. Call us on 0300 30 20 100 for more information.

It's always been important to keep an eye on energy use but, with energy prices rising, it's more important now than ever.

Smart meters and the in-home display can help. They mean you can see how much energy you're using and how much you're spending. So you can decide when to turn on, turn up, or turn off.

Ask your energy supplier for a smart meter or search 'get a smart meter' today.

Some homes can't get a smart meter yet. Your energy supplier can tell you if you can have one and how soon it can be installed.

Missing rose-buds?

Is anyone missing a cake plate from the jubilee tea in Barningham? It has rose-buds on it and is made of Adderley bone china.

If it's yours, give me a ring on 01833 621024 or e-mail:

Jubilee

I would like to extend a huge thank you to all who worked so hard to make the Platinum Jubilee in Barningham such a fantastic, successful event. We certainly celebrated in style and paid tribute to our extraordinary Queen. There was such a lovely community feeling and after the events, without asking, everything was cleared up. It was lovely to see so many people had taken the trouble to put bunting up – what a display! Well done Barningham!

Platinum Celebrations at Dalton & Gayles Yorkshire Countrywomen

For our June meeting we had a special afternoon tea to celebrate the Queen's Platinum jubilee. After a short business meeting we had a minute's silence for Marian Clarkson, one of our members who has sadly died.

The members were elegantly dressed with hats or fascinators and looked lovely. Our three oldest members planted a Queen Elizabeth rose to commemorate the event. It was truly an enjoyable afternoon with a wonderful spread, we have so many talented bakers.

Many thanks to Newsham village hall for lending us the Queen and corgis for the afternoon, it made it even more special.

Our next meeting on Tuesday 5 July at 7:30pm is Nalia Laundry, Spicing up the Dales, a cookery demonstration and talk about Pakistan.

Strangers with guns

On Wednesday June 15th just after 3pm I saw, from my kitchen window, two men walking along the public footpath below our house, one carrying a canvas bag on his shoulder. The second man then attempted to climb up into our field with a large gun that he pointed across the field towards our house.

Becoming aware that they were being observed they quickly made off towards Shaw Lane. I rang the Estate gamekeeper and reported their activity.

It is extremely concerning to know we again have strangers with guns roaming the Village in broad daylight and on a public footpath and wondered if they had been invited to shoot rabbits, as I am aware of a recent request (not by the PCC) to eliminate rabbits by shooting in the Churchyard.

Sheila Hay, Fairview House, Barningham.

This is, indeed, concerning. I would suggest that anyone witnessing such occurrences telephone the number as posted by the local constabulary on the Inside Page, i.e. dial 101. Ed.

The Quarrymen cometh?

Sally Zaranko from Whashton informs us that there is a quarry development proposal at Gayles, which may affect some readers and of which people may not be aware. The application reference is:

APPLICATION NY/2022/0103/FUL

Sadly, the consultation period ends on 30th June, which is before the likely distribution date of this issue of The Flyer.

News on what's been happening

- We have had a very successful Jubilee June, with events happening every weekend during the month of June. The Strawberry Fayre, the Lunchtime Sunday BBQ, the Jubilee Entertainment Evening and finally the Jubilee Quiz – all of which were enjoyed by local residents and brought people together to celebrate the Jubilee.
- We have finally been connected to the mains water supply: many thanks to Richmondshire District Council for their grant towards this work.
