Barningham Church

You may not be aware that we have a table in church displaying local home-made goods for sale. These raises a substantial amount of money during the year but unfortunately the amount of goods available has shrunk considerably recently. If you have anything you think might be useful - perhaps knitted/crochet items, homemade cards, small ornaments or anything else you feel might be saleable, please either contact me on 01833621024 or 07989877760 or leave them on the table in church. Many thanks,

Ann Orton, Barningham

BARNINGHAM & NEWSHAM TREE PLANTING

Volunteer tasks are now running. These are 2-hour sessions and a great way to meet friends and get out of the house over the winter, while doing something to help our local wildlife and biodiversity.

Autumn Leaves

The Summer leaves have lost their green, With all their Autumn colours, tell us they have been. Their yearly task has been achieved. From buds and blossom, flowers to fruit and seed – Grain for the harvest, green grass to be grazed or made into sweet smelling hay. Shades of every colour as the sun shines on us along our way. Yellows, browns, russets – the leaves parting colour – another year gone. The gorse and the holly, the fir tree and the yew keep their dark green foliage on. Fairy lights on the Christmas tree, candle light on these dark green leaves and red berries of the holly – Colours not neglected when we have the mulled wine and make folly. Colours for remembrance when we make the wreath To leave in the churchyard and snowdrops and daffodils will grow through it from the soil beneath. The bride in white, the groom in dark suit Bridesmaids with bouquets, bright flowers from green shoots And we give roses for love and romance So, our emotions enhance. The dull ring of the church bell over another grave – In mourning we think of what that last life gave. Life had its ups and downs, not always in clover. Like nature too, our season will pass over. Flowers, coloured leaves laid there is the end with a flourish – The finality and thoughts to cherish.

Douglas Anderson, Barningham

One of my favourite recordings of Autumn Leaves is 26 minutes worth of Keith Jarrett Live at the Blue Note, Saturday June 4th, 1994, 1st set. Check it out! Thank you Doug. [Ed.]

Following resignation of Cllr Melissa Sanderson vacancy" on the Council. As nobody asked for an election within the prescribed period a replacement Councillor can be adopted by the Council. If interested, please contact the Clerk or the Chairman of the Council. The duties are light, just six meetings a year, conducted in a friendly and relaxed manner. I urge all residents, ladies in particular, to step forward and join us, after all, we are trying to make the parish life better for all of us!

I would also like to thank Melissa on behalf of the Council for the years of service and wish her family the best of health in the future.
