LETTERS

CANINE APPRECIATION...

I would like to thank Lisa Hockham and Chris Gale for helping to find me, and restore me to the bosom of my family, when I slipped my lead on the Low Lane recently and decided to explore the countryside. Everyone was very pleased to see me back (but it was great while it lasted).

Cindy Brooks, Park View, Barningham

Really weird...

Dear Flyer, we planted a tree, a horse chestnut, which we had grown from a conker. We planted it in a place where at some time in the future, people driving over the newly restored Whorlton Bridge would see the blossom in the woods every spring. But now they won't. Someone wandered off the footpath, climbed up into the woods, found a young tree growing tall and strong, covered with fresh green leaves and snapped it in half. Some people are really weird. Does anyone have a healthy horse chestnut tree in a pot, please?

Mary Stastny

Taking part...

As a grower of flowers & vegetables I, like most others, am not having a good time due to the weather. However do not be discouraged and, whatever things turn out to be, please put them in – you may win!

Taking part is what has made the Barningham Produce Show successful over the many years it's been going and there are many more classes.

Thanking you in anticipation...

Tony Orton, Chairman, Barningham Produce Show

Whorlton & Westwick Parish Council

Following the resignation of councillor, Mrs Liese Duggan, and as an election was not requested, the councillors were delighted to adopt Mr Howard Haughton to make up the council to full strength.

Whorlton Village Community Association

Dates for your diary:

Whorlton Village Hall Coffee Morning: Sat 10 Aug, 10am – noon, £4 per person – see ad.

Letter:

Folksy Theatre's "As You Like It" transformed Whorlton green into a lively stage of mirth and music, offering a joyous night for all.

Flossie Ure's Rosalind was portrayed with wit and charm, drawing the audience into her world. Ronan O'Hara's Orlando embodied passion, his presence magnetic. Seonaid Stevenson's Celia charmed with humour, while Holly Durkin's exceptional portrayal added depth to Oliver's transformation and Silvius' heartfelt sincerity. Stuart Scott's Touchstone delivered quips with impeccable timing and, as Jaques, his introspective soliloquies resonated deeply. His interpretation of "All the world's a stage" was poignant and moving.

The outdoor setting blended perfectly with their musical talents, enhancing emotional beats with grace. Birds chirped in harmony with actors' lines, and gentle breezes carried the actor musicians' melodies, enriching the performance. Costumes and set design embraced rustic charm, allowing talents to shine brightly. Audience engagement was palpable, with moments of reflection balanced by uproarious comedy. Overall, the performance was a testament to Shakespearean comedy's enduring appeal and the actors' talents. Their collective artistry wove a tapestry of delight that lingered long after the final bow—an unforgettable blend of nature, music, and superb acting.

DALTON & GAYLES YORKSHIRE COUNTRYWOMEN - JUNE & JULY REPORTS

For our 4th June meeting we had William Gardner from Roots and Shoots, a NAFAS trained florist, doing flower arranging. He was wonderfully entertaining explaining about flowers, his business and did three wonderful arrangements which were raffled to our members.

For our 2nd July meeting we had Kathryn Machin from Darlington Glass telling us all about glass fusing; a fascinating talk about all the different types of glass and how it reacts in the kiln. She brought some lovely samples of her work. We are thinking of having her back here later in the year to do a workshop in the hall, if there is any interest locally.

During our short business meeting we discussed Ryedale Show on 30th July, where they will have a YCA stand, and our outing to Saltburn by the Sea in September.

Next meeting: Tue 6 August: talk by Barbara Dixon: Ramblings from the Register Office. Janet Paterson
