I, Malvolio

Gordon Duffy-McGhie stars in the story of Twelfth Night as told by Shakespeare's most pen-up steward – a charged, hilarious and unsettling rant from a man who was “notoriously wronged”.

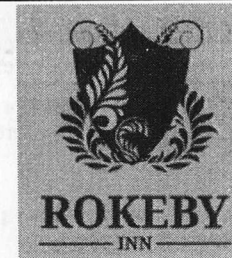

In this story of lost dignity, prudery, practical jokes and bullying, Malvolio draws his audience into the madness of Shakespeare's play and makes it his own.

WHASHTON PARISH MEETING

Quiz raises £600 for village

OUR Annual Quiz was held in Dalton & Gayles Village Hall on February 22nd with over 70 folks enjoying a great night, with testing but fun questions set by Alan Cowie, supported by his assistant Jenny Cowie.

Excellent food provided by the quizzers was enjoyed by all and a raffle organised by Andy Kerr and Avril Clarke added to the enjoyment of the evening.

Almost £600 was raised from the event, which will help in maintenance of the Village Green.

John Moore, our Treasurer, has recently completed a visit to all residents to raise further donations for the village funds and to update our database of residents, including a list of volunteers prepared to help grass cutting and organise future events.

The rota for grass cutting, together with plans for our Summer Barbecue, is being issued following our Village Meeting on 25th March. Report of that in the next Flyer.

DALTON & GAYLES VILLAGE HALL

Another successful year

AGM Tuesday 12th March: Chairman Jim Sadler thanked all who helped to keep the hall in such fine running order. All their efforts were much appreciated.

He outlined regular events held in the hall and special one-off events which all served financially towards maintaining its the upkeep as well as giving members of our community a fine venue to get together. Mention was made of the Annual Village Show, The Strawberry Fayre, The Annual Quiz, The Panto and the Music Nights which had taken place.

Maintenance: The new heating system, the external painting, replacement of fire doors, floor maintenance and replacement of dishwasher control panel, along with regular excellent cleaning, had all maintained the generally excellent condition of the hall.

He hoped the active input to the life of the hall would continue and that folk felt well informed on village hall matters as details of the events were now widely advertised via parish magazines, local newspapers, our website and Facebook page.

David Taylor presented the annual financial review which included expenditure which enhanced the hall.

The existing committee was re-elected and Sue Farr was welcomed back after her year's sabbatical.

Secretary Alison Brooks noted that there was an upsurge in the number of enquiries regarding booking the hall for private functions.

Committee meeting following the AGM:

Present: David & Margaret Taylor, Alison Brooks, Pat Fava, Sue Farr, Jim Sadler. Apologies: Dave Matthewman, Ben Lamb.

Recent Events: The panto had been very well received. Profit yet to be finalised. RACE Music Night raised £125.00 for Macmillan Trust Nurses plus a small profit for the hall.

Forthcoming events: Anthony John Clarke 23rd March, 'I, Malvolio' 6th April, Strawberry Fayre 16th June, village show 17th August. Relevant Advertising organised.

Maintenance: Radiators up and running and well received. Disposal of old radiators organised. Internal painting of main hall remains on future agenda. Leaks from taps in main hall sinkstill relatively small. Advice on feasibility and cost of obtaining water from James Milbank's new pipe still being sought. Supper room carpet cleaning to be arranged.

Deeds & Constitution: Work continues on the updating of these. Jim had attended a useful Richmond Community Buildings Network Meeting..

Finances: February's accounts, presented.

Telephone Box & Defibrillator: No update as Ben was absent.

Next meetings: Tuesdays 9th April & 14th May, 7.30pm.

LIBRARY SERVICE

It is almost two years since the libraries in Richmond, Catterick and Colburn became a charity run by volunteers. The libraries have been refurbished, still have an excellent stock of books, with new titles arriving regularly. They also have an amazing choice of ebooks.

There is also now a Home Library Service for the housebound. A volunteer can call to discuss the type of books preferred, (there is an option for Large Print books and audio books) delivery and collection will be arranged.

If you would like to join the library (free of charge) drop into Richmond and speak to one of our volunteers or call 01609 533800 for more information about the Home Library Service.
