DALTON & GAYLES VILLAGE HALL

More needed at hall events

Village Hall Committee meeting, April 9th.

Present: David & Margaret Taylor, Alison Brooks, Pat Fava, Ben Lamb, Jim Sadler. Apologies: Dave Matthewman, Sue Farr.

Recent events. Disappointment was expressed at the small audiences attending at the folk night and production of I, Malvolio. There was discussion about whether more should be done to find out what residents would like to see, as events cannot be run if they make a loss.

Forthcoming events: Strawberry Fayre 16th June, Village Show 17th August. There will be live music from Richmond School students at the Fayre. The Folk Camp will be held 24th to 28th May.

Maintenance. Old radiators have been disposed of. Painting the supper room and entrance hall is likely to be carried out over winter. Main hall sink will be repaired soon. Costs awaited for obtaining mains water from James Milbank's pipe. Supper room carpet cleaning arranged. Fire alarms, fire extinguishers and emergency lights satisfactorily tested. Hall guttering inspection to be arranged and any repair work to be carried out.

Constitution Update: Ongoing.

Finances: Pantomime profit to the hall was £1447 (£1222 in 2018). Pilates and private hiring will add to income over the coming months. Replacement of round tables to be costed.

Gayles telephone box. The defibrillator has arrived and should be installed within the next eight weeks.

A.O.B. A kind offer of a wheel chair to assist people with mobility problems in and around the hall has been received. Health and safety guidelines regarding its use to be researched.

Next meetings: Tuesdays 14th May, 11th June, 7.30pm.

WHASHTON PARISH MEETING

Meeting in the Hack & Spade March 25.

Present: Ian Mains (Chair), John Moore (Treasurer), Andrew Hurwood Foster (Clerk), Margaret & Bob Stanbridge, Alan Cowie, Andy & Jane Ratcliffe, Hazel Leah, Fiona Hurwood Foster & Rob Clipsham. Apologies: Sue & Alan Fielder, Cherry Mains, Sheila & Ray Walker, Isabel Kay, Kathryn & Michael Guy, Andy Kerr & Averil Clarke.

Basic Life Support & AED Awareness. A course was presented by Patrick Murphy of PH Training & Consulting Services and all present felt it was very worthwhile. Patrick recommended that all residents should make themselves familiar with the defibrillator in the old telephone box.

Highways: RDC will be asked what can be done to reinstate access to cross Smelt Mill Beck on the public footpath between Whashton and Gilling West.

Treasurer's Report: John Moore said village accounts stood at a healthy £1,196.29, due to a very successful Quiz Night and donations from residents.

Neighbourhood Watch: Motorcycles continue to use the bridle path, ignoring the signage recently installed. Following a confrontation with two motorcyclists, police have been notified.

Grass Cutting: Equipment is being checked and coordination of grass cutting is underway.

Social Events: Agreed that the BBQ would not take place and alternative events planned: a treasure hunt in June, a pre-Christmas Christingle style event, a Safari Supper in February 2020.

Any other business: The potential to establish a wild flower meadow on the village green is under review.
